

Queen's Hall, High Street
Cuckfield, West Sussex
RH17 5EL
07857-815880
info@cuckfieldmuseum.org
www.cuckfieldmuseum.org

We have a number of books for sale in the Museum.
Here is a sample:

'Old Cuckfield'
by David Jamieson
Price: £10

A book published by a local author which showcases old photographs and tales of Cuckfield.

'Safe in Cuckfield'
Price: £2

Describes the lives of the London children who were evacuated to Cuckfield during the Second World War, as recounted by themselves as adults.

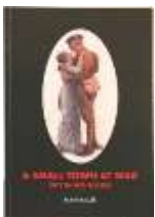

'A Chronicle of Cuckfield'
by Maisie Wright
Price: £4

Researched and written by a local historian, this is an illustrated history of Cuckfield spanning the years 1000 to 1991.

'Haywards Heath Through Time'
by Colin Manton
Price: £10

The story of Haywards Heath is told via fascinating 'then and now' photographs. This will be of great interest to those who know the town.

'A Small Town at War' by Alan Miller
Price: £2

A year in the life of people of Cuckfield during the Great War, with illustrations.

Cuckfield Museum CIO
Registered Charity No. 1182604

Queen's Hall, High Street
Cuckfield, West Sussex
RH17 5EL
07857-815880
info@cuckfieldmuseum.org
www.cuckfieldmuseum.org

Other items for sale:

Tea Towels

Wonderfully colourful tea towels made from artwork generously donated by Peggy Alves, highlighting different aspects of Cuckfield and Mid Sussex through the alphabet.

Price: £8 each

Cuckfield

Mid Sussex

'Cuckfield' coffee mugs
Price: £10 each

Cuckfield Museum fridge magnets
Price: £1 each

To order any of these items or publications, please complete the attached order form, add £1.50 per item for postage and packing and send it with your payment to the museum at the above address.

Cuckfield Museum CIO
Registered Charity No. 1182604